

G. PETER WILSON

Biographical Summary

G. Peter Wilson is the Joseph L. Sweeney Chair of Accounting at Boston College and has served on faculties at Lake-Sumter Community College, Carnegie-Mellon University, Stanford University, Harvard University, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Professor Wilson has given over 250 speeches to academics and practitioners and taught short courses for two Fortune-50 companies. He and his wife, Carolyn, are creating Navigating Accounting®, a multimedia free website that provides a foundation for understanding, preparing, and using accounting information.

Professor Wilson received American Accounting Association's Competitive Manuscript Award in 1986, Distinguished Teaching Award at the Stanford Business School in 1988, Teacher of the Year Award at the Sloan School of Management, M.I.T., in 1995, American Accounting Association's Outstanding Educator Award in 2005, Teaching with New Media Awards at Boston College in 2009 and 2010, American Institute of CPAs' Distinguished Achievement in Accounting Education Award in 2010, in 2014, American Accounting Association Two-Year Section Life-Time Achievement in Accounting Education Award, and the 2014 American Accounting Association's Innovation in Accounting Education Award as a member of the Pathways Commission Vision committee. He is a member of the American Accounting Association, was a member of the Accounting Education Change Commission and the Pathways Commission Vision for Accounting Education Committee, was the 2002-2003 President of the American Accounting Association, and has served on the Editorial Boards of The Accounting Review, Journal of Accounting Research, and Issues in Accounting Education.

Professor Wilson received a Ph.D. and an M.S. in Industrial Administration from Carnegie-Mellon University, M.S. in Mathematics and B.S. in Mathematics Education from Florida Atlantic University, and A.A. from Lake-Sumter Community College.